

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

David Levoyd Reed,

Case No.: 2:19-cv-00326-JAD-BNW

Plaintiff

Order Dismissing Claims against Defendants Karsky and Corral-Lagarda

James Dzurenda, et al.,

Defendants

8 Pro se plaintiff David Reed sues several correctional officers under 42 U.S.C. § 1983
9 after an altercation at the High Desert State Prison left him with staples in his head and a
10 disciplinary charge for battery. On August 27, 2021, I ordered Reed to show cause by 11 September 27, 2021, why the claims against Defendants Karsky and Corral-Lagarda should not
12 be dismissed without prejudice for failure to serve them.<sup>1</sup> On Reed's motion, I extended that 13 deadline to October 27, 2021.<sup>2</sup> Reed has neither shown cause why his claims against Karsky and
14 Corral-Lagarda should not be dismissed for lack of service nor further moved to extend his 15 deadline to do so.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Reed's claims against Defendants Karsky and

23||<sup>1</sup> ECF No. 126.

<sup>2</sup> ECF No. 130.

1 Corral-Lagarda are DISMISSED under FRCP 4(m) for failure to timely serve them. This case
2 proceeds only on Reed's:

3     • First Amendment retaliation claim against Stubbs, and
4     • Eighth Amendment excessive-force claim against Stubbs, Rivera, and Dicus.

5
6

7 U.S. District Judge Jennifer A. Dorsey
8 Dated: November 3, 2021

9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23